IMPORTANT UPDATES:

New Grantee: Washington State University was selected as the PREP grantee for fiscal years 2015-2019. WSU will receive $535K for the 2015 award. Of this, $35K is allocated towards tribal participation, a slight increase over previous years.

PREP Website: Please visit the new PREP website at: http://prep.cw.wsu.edu/. WSU would like to add more information regarding states, tribes and territories in the scrolling banner on the main page. Please contact WSU by email at prep.sla@wsu.edu for information on how to include your state, tribe or territory.

The 2015 PREP course line-up, along with other important information about the program, is also posted there. 2015 courses are:
1. Laboratory Issues, April 13-16 in Savannah, GA (course attendance closed).
2. Pollinator Protection and Pesticide Management, May 4-7 in Portland, OR (course attendance closed).
3. Registration and Re-evaluation, July 7-10 in Crystal City, VA (stay-tuned: course invites will be mailed around March 31st).
4. Worker Protection Standard, October 26-29 in Phoenix, AZ (stay-tuned: course invites will be mailed around July 20th).

Coming this summer, WSU will add an Archival Library to the website where you will find PDF and narrated presentations on key topics presented during the PREP courses.
